REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Facilitator: Training of 30 Women Leaders on Civic Literacy, Public Participation & County Budgeting

Opening Date: 30th April 2026

Closing Date: 20th May 2026

ABOUT FPRJC!

FPRJC inspires and develops a generation of grassroots women to have a voice and ignite feminist leadership action for gender transformative change. We exist for the realization of a society free from all forms of gender-based discrimination, where every individual, regardless of their gender, age and identity can thrive and reach their full potential. Through advocacy and capacity building, we support communities to establish deep commitment to the promotion of human rights and the fight against inequalities and discrimination. We are the voice of the vulnerable and marginalized women, girls and other groups of different gender identities. We achieve this through our thematic areas on Women's health right and well-being, Women's Leadership & Governance and Women Climate Action and Livelihoods Development.

OBJECTIVES

The objective of this assignment is to strengthen the capacity of 30 grassroots women and feminist leaders in Kibra Sub-County and Mugumo-ini Ward in:

- Civic literacy and governance systems
- Public participation law and rights-based engagement

- County budgeting processes and entry points for citizen participation
- Feminist leadership and advocacy for inclusive governance

The facilitator will support participants to:

1. Understand how county government structures and systems work
2. Build knowledge of public participation laws in Kenya
3. Gain practical skills in engaging in county budgeting processes
4. Strengthen feminist leadership and collective action
5. Develop confidence to engage duty-bearers and policy spaces

This training aims to equip women with practical knowledge and skills to actively engage in decision-making spaces, influence local governance processes, and strengthen community-led accountability.
