REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS

Facilitator: Staff and Volunteer Orientation on Project Objectives, Implementation Strategies & Roles

Opening Date: 30th April 2026

Closing Date: 20th May 2026

ABOUT FPRJC!

FPRJC inspires and develops a generation of grassroots women to have a voice and ignite feminist leadership action for gender transformative change. We exist for the realization of a society free from all forms of gender-based discrimination, where every individual, regardless of their gender, age and identity can thrive and reach their full potential. Through advocacy and capacity building, we support communities to establish deep commitment to the promotion of human rights and the fight against inequalities and discrimination. We are the voice of the vulnerable and marginalized women, girls and other groups of different gender identities. We achieve this through our thematic areas on Women's health right and well-being, Women's Leadership & Governance and Women Climate Action and Livelihoods Development.

OBJECTIVES

The facilitator will support participants to:

1. Understand the project framework, including goals, outcomes, outputs, and implementation strategies

2. Build clarity on roles, responsibilities, and performance expectations for effective project delivery
3. Strengthen knowledge on feminist leadership, safeguarding, and ethical engagement when working with women and girls
4. Enhance understanding of financial management, procurement procedures, and donor compliance requirements
5. Build capacity in Monitoring, Evaluation, Accountability and Learning (MEAL), including data collection and ethical data handling
6. Establish effective internal communication, coordination, and reporting mechanisms.

This training aims to ensure that staff and volunteers are aligned, confident, and equipped to implement the project efficiently, ethically, and in line with FPRJC's feminist values.
