CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Volunteer Intern Project Coordinator – Women Climate Action and Livelihood Development

Opening Date: 11th May 2026

Closing Date: 25th May 2026

ABOUT FPRJC!

FPRJC inspires and develops a generation of grassroots women to have a voice and ignite feminist leadership action for gender transformative change. We exist for the realization of a society free from all forms of gender-based discrimination, where every individual, regardless of their gender, age, and identity can thrive and reach their full potential. Through advocacy and capacity building, we support communities to establish deep commitment to the promotion of human rights and the fight against inequalities and discrimination. We are the voice of vulnerable and marginalized women, girls, and other groups of different gender identities.

We achieve this through our thematic areas on:

- Women's Health Rights and Well-being
- Women's Leadership and Governance
- Women Climate Action and Livelihoods Development

FPRJC is seeking a passionate, committed, and highly organized Volunteer Intern Project Coordinator – Women Climate Action and Livelihood Development to support the planning, coordination, implementation, and documentation of projects under the Women Climate Action and Livelihood Development thematic area.

The internship offers an opportunity for young feminists, climate advocates, development practitioners, and community organizers to gain hands-on experience in grassroots climate justice programming, women's empowerment initiatives, and sustainable livelihoods development.

POSITION SUMMARY

we for us

The Volunteer Intern Project Coordinator will support implementation of climate justice and livelihood projects aimed at empowering women, girls, and marginalized communities through sustainable, community-driven interventions. The intern will work closely with program department, community groups, and partners to coordinate activities, support field engagement, document project progress, and contribute to advocacy and learning processes.

The position is ideal for individuals passionate about climate justice, gender equality, sustainable development, community empowerment, and feminist organizing.
